

CUVÉE RENÉE 2014 sauvignon blanc

90 points - Wine Spectator. True to the grape, but even more interesting and delicious! All the wonderful freshness and vitality the varietal is celebrated for, yet shies away from the traditional grassiness in favor of exotic floral notes, citrus and tropical fruit. Limited

2014 | sonoma county

sonoma coast rosé

65% PINOT NOIR - 29% SYRAH - 6% GRENACHE

This is a rosé with personality, structure and presence. There's plenty of vibrant, fresh red fruit from the Pinot Noir as well as lovely spice and even a hint of tannin from the Syrah and Grenache. Add dimensionality and a lingering finish and you have a complete wine that satisfies every bit as much as it refreshes. (Limited production on this one - you snooze, you lose.)

2015 | sonoma county

SMALL TOWN PINOT NOIR

92 points - PinotFile. Medium-deep ruby color; lush, earthy cherry aromas; deep, earthy cherry flavors with lots of herb notes; silky texture; good structure and balance; long finish. Herbal and earthy, this is a great Pinot for mushroom pasta.

2013 | sonoma coast

CUVÉE RENÉE 2015 sauvignon blanc

The nose is banana, mango, fresh lemon, vanilla and green apple. The palate entry is crisp, focused with a pure lime and mineral freshness. In the core, some notes of grass and herb finishing with lively exuberance. Limited production.

2015 | sonoma county

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY chardonnay

Medium-light golden yellow; attractive, slightly buttery, ripe pear and baked apple aroma with tropical notes and hints of jasmine and wet stone; medium to medium-full body; deep, apple and stone fruit flavors that are nicely balanced, and rich and fleshy in the mouthfeel; lingering aftertaste.

2013 | russian river california

green acres hill vineyard CHARDONNAY

Layer after layer of lemon curd, citrus rind, green apple and crème brûlée in both aroma and flavor, all finishing with crisp mineral snap. White Burgundy fans typically find a lot to love in this bottling. Single vineyard, 165 cases produced.

2013 | sonoma coast

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY chardonnay

There's loads of toasty apple, poached pear and crème brulee aromas and flavors, with hints of lychee as well as the hallmark delicate white flower character from the Stiling vineyard fruit that forms the base of this delicious cuvée.

2012 | russian river california